National Webinar: Global Skills Matrix

A globally recognised framework for administrators and HR teams that, irrespective of country, makes it possible to identify levels of work for a given role and career progression opportunities to realise the potential to an organisation of an effective administrator.

The Global Skills Matrix:

- Professionalises & increases the role value
- Makes becoming an administrator a viable & structured career choice
- Provides a framework when changing job, locally or globally
- Paves the way for specific & internationally recognised credentialing
